Addnode Group renews agreement with leading Swedish engineering consultancy company, worth SEK 31 million

STOCKHOLM, JANUARY 20, 2016 – Cad-Q, a subsidiary of Addnode Group, the leading supplier of model- and drawing related IT in the Nordics has both renewed and expanded the agreement with one of Sweden's largest engineering consultancy companies. The three year agreement has a total order value of SEK 31 million.

The engineering consulting company is engaged in development within the fields of energy, industry and infrastructure and has a presence in over 30 countries worldwide. The company has chosen to both extend and expand the agreement with one of Addnode Group's subsidiaries, Cad-Q, which is the leading supplier of model- and drawing related IT in the Nordics. The agreement covers the Autodesk product platform with additional products and includes software, license management, education and services.

- This is a prestigious assignment and we are happy and proud that they have given us a renewed confidence over a span of three years. This is further proof that our offering fits the markets demand of these type of products and services, said Jens Kollserud, CEO of Cad-Q.
