

Lotta Jarleryd leaves the role as CFO of Addnode Group

Lotta Jarleryd has today announced that she will leave her role as CFO and member of the group management. The recruitment of a replacement will begin immediately.

Lotta Jarleryd will continue in her role until a successor takes office, or at the latest until October 2023.

"During her time as CFO for Addnode Group, Lotta has been significant for the company's development. We have doubled the net sales, tripled the profit and become an international company in the last four years. I want to thank Lotta for a good collaboration and wish her all the best when she now chooses to leave the company," says Johan Andersson, CEO and President of Addnode Group.

"I am grateful to have been part of this fantastic company, an incredible team and an exciting journey since 2019. Together, we have taken many important steps in the company's growth and internationalization. It has not been an easy decision to leave Addnode Group. I wish the team all the luck and continued success," says Lotta Jarleryd.
